

CONFIDENTIAL

ROLE OF CIA IN THE NATIONAL SECURITY SYSTEM

(a 45-minute lecture)

I. Intelligence and Policy

- A. Membership, Functions, and Structure of the National Security Council
(includes Planning Board and Operations Coordinating Board)
- B. Role of Intelligence In the Formulation of Policy
 - 1. The Director of Central Intelligence as Intelligence Advisor to the President and the NSC
 - 2. The National Intelligence Estimate
- C. The Intelligence-Policy-Action Cycle

II. US Intelligence System

- A. Membership and Functions of the US Intelligence Board
- B. Coordination of US Intelligence
 - 1. The Director of Central Intelligence as Intelligence Coordinator
 - 2. The Issuance of Intelligence Directives (NSCID's) by the NSC
(including a discussion of all seven NSCID's and the system of further implementation through DCID's)
 - 3. The Setting Up of Committees by the USIB (highlighting the key committees among the 26) to Coordinate in Areas of Overlapping Interest
 - 4. Field Coordination

III. Supervision of US Intelligence

- A. Executive
 - 1. The President and the NSC
 - 2. The President's Board of Consultants on Foreign Intelligence Activities
- B. Legislative

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

Approved For Release 2002/06/10 : CIA-RDP63-00309A000200010009-5

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2002/06/10 : CIA-RDP63-00309A000200010009-5